COLLECTS.

O Lord God Almighty, Maker of all things and Giver of all good gifts, who didst put into the hearts of Thy servants to lay the foundation stones of this Church, not for their own glory, but to the glory and praise of our Incarnate Lord, and in honour of the Blessed Evangelist S. Luke, for the worship of Thy glorious Majesty, the preaching of Thy Holy Word, the ministration of Thy Holy Sacraments, and the edification of faithful souls: We thank Thee for the abundant Blessing which Thou hast granted in this place, and we beseech Thee, O Heavenly Father, to continue the same blessings to us and to our children's children for all generations yet to come, that this Church may ever remain separate from all profane and unhallowed uses, and may continually stand a witness to the people of Thy truth and Thy loving kindness, which Thou hast shown unto us in the Person of the same Thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

O Eternal Lord God, who holdest all souls in life, we beseech Thee to shed forth upon Thy whole Church in Paradise and on earth the bright beams of Thy light and heavenly comfort; and grant that we, following the good examples of those who have served Thee here and are at rest, particularly the Founders and Benefactors of this Church, for whose memory we continually give thanks unto Thee, may with them at length enter into Thine unending joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE PARISH.

Almighty and Everlasting God, who dost govern all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the supplications of Thy people; and grant unto this Parish all things that are needful for its spiritual welfare. Strengthen and confirm the faithful; visit and relieve the sick; turn and soften the wicked; rouse the careless; recover the fallen; restore the penitent; remove all hindrances to the advancement of Thy truth, and bring all to be of one heart and one soul within the fold of Thy Holy Church; prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handy work; to the honor and glory of Thy Blessed Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

NOTE.—A Patronal Festival is kept with an octave. It should be observed throughout the whole Parish.

To testify unto Israel: To give thanks unto the name of the Lord.”

THE BABY GRAND PIANO

Is often desired on account of its Small Size, regardless of the question of Price.

*THE
HENRY F. MILLER*

Surpasses all other Small Grands and fully meets the requirements of a Magnificent Large-Size Grand, where the amount of space does not permit the use of the Larger Piano.

*THE
HENRY F. MILLER
IDEAL GRAND*

Larger than the Baby Grand. Is so called on account of its Ideal Size, and its being an Ideal Piano for Home Use.
Its Capacity is unsurpassed for Parlor Use.

Among the many Philadelphia Musicians using the HENRY F. MILLER Grands, in their Homes and Studios, are

*Herr Fritz Scheel,

A PASTORAL LETTER

My Dear Brethren of St. Luke's:

On this occasion of the one hundredth anniversary of our beloved Parish, I trust that it may not be presumptuous in me to greet you after the manner of the Apostle—Grace be unto you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ. For at least it may be noted that when he addressed the Church at Philippi in these words, the souls in that fold numbered far less than are included in the Parish of St. Luke's.

A Parish can have a Centennial year only at very long intervals. It is an exceptional experience for any one generation to be in just that position when it can keep such an event. It behooves us, therefore, to take heed to the opportunity which is now before us—to properly value and use it.

I would suggest that a hundred years involves a history of deeply appreciable moment, which is enhanced in proportion to the numbers of the people concerned, their standing in the community, and their ability and opportunity for good. This is especially true when they constitute, as in this case, a corporate unit, or sub-unit (the Diocese being the unit) of the Church of God. The people of St. Luke's, therefore, have reason to regard their Parish Centennial with feelings of deepest interest, of pardonable pride, and of thankfulness.

Our history of a hundred years presents a combination of experiences in the lives of a large number of individuals who have been brought together and formed into a household or society. As such it carries with it many absorbing memories. This combination of personal experiences is particularly important because it involves the spiritual life of many members united in one, that one being a part or representative of a greater whole. The purpose of a Parish—the end of its being—is to realize that it is of the One Body, and one Spirit, of the one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all.

You, my dear people of this Parish, are here, not because St. Luke's Church is the most convenient one for you to attend, not because you like your Rector (for the more abundantly he love you, the less he be loved) not because the greater number of your friends and associates are here, nor because the ritual or the music best suits your taste. You are in St. Luke's rather because you find here the nurture and development of your spiritual being, because you have found here the Truth as it is in Jesus, and the rule of conduct which is His Way, and the abundance of grace which is His Life. You are here in this House of God because you find in it the Gate of Heaven, because, in all your struggles and losses and sorrows, you find in it strength and comfort, and because at this Altar you have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the world to come.

The beginnings of St. Luke's Church were very feeble, and its history shows many vicissitudes, but the good hand of God has upheld it and blessed it with many blessings. He has placed it on a firm foundation and put it into our hands to administer in His fear and love. Let us keep that which is committed to our trust, remembering that membership carries with it a sacred responsibility. Let us pray the Great Head of the Church to guide and prosper us, and let us praise His holy Name, whose mercy endureth forever.

Sincerely and affectionately,

Your Rector,
SAMUEL UPJOHN

Hymns to be used at Evensong on Saturday

NOW THANK WE ALL OUR GOD

Now thank we our God,
With heart and hand and voices!
Who wondrous things hath done,
In Whom His world rejoices;
Who from our mothers' arms
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love;
And still is ours to-day.

O may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us!
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in His grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next. AMEN.

ANCIENT OF DAYS

Ancient of days, Who sittest, throned in glory;
To Thee all knees are bent, all voices pray;
Thy love hath blessed the wide world's wondrous story,
With light and life since Eden's dawning day.

O Holy Father, Who hast led Thy children
In all the ages, with the Fire and Cloud,
Through seas dry-shod; through weary wastes bewildering;
To Thee, in reverent love, our hearts are bowed.

O Holy Jesus, Prince of Peace and Saviour,
To Thee we owe the peace that still prevails,
Stilling the rude wills of men's wild behaviour,
And calming passion's fierce and stormy gales.

O Holy Ghost, the Lord and the Life-giver,
Thine is the quickening power that gives increase.
From Thee have flowed, as from a pleasant river,
Our plenty, wealth, prosperity and peace.

O Triune God, with heart and voice adorning,
Praise we the goodness that doth crown our days;
Pray we, that Thou wilt hear us, still imploring
Thy love and favour, kept to us always. AMEN.

S. LUKE'S DAY, OCTOBER 18-25
THE ONE HUNDRED AND TENTH ANNIVERSARY
OFFERINGS FOR THE
PERMANENT FUND AND THE ORGAN FUND
S. LUKE'S DAY AND OCTAVE

MY DEAR BRETHREN OF S. LUKE'S CHURCH:

The recurrence of the Feast of S. Luke will remind us of our common heritage in our Household of Faith, and in the Divine Life, which alone fits us for the present time, and for "the life of the world to come."

Additional stimulus is given to our Parish Festival by the Call which comes to us from our Mother, the wider Church of the nation; for the exercise, on our part, of a holy zeal and work.

"The night cometh, when no man can work."

The Order

October 25, Octave of S. Luke's Day.

Celebrations, 7 and 9.30 A. M.

With recognition of "your labour and service of love," may I urge that this, the one hundred and tenth anniversary of our Parish, may win from us all a renewed pledge of our loyalty to our Lord Christ, Who is ever our "sacrifice for sin and also an ensample of Godly life"; and to His Church "which He hath purchased with His own Blood." May it be our ambition to hear Him say in that coming hour, "Well done thou good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things: be thou ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Faithfully, your Rector,

SOLEMN FESTIVAL EVENSONG IN THANKSGIVING FOR FIFTY YEARS OF DEVOTED SERVICE

GEORGE ALEX. A. WEST

Organist and Choirmaster

- PRELUDE "Chorale" Joseph Jongen
HYMN 262 "Praise the Lord through Every Nation"
PSALM 93 "Dominus regnavit" Prayer Book, page 457
MAGNIFICAT AND NUNC DIMITTIS Bruce Steane in C
ANTHEM From "Via Crucis" George Alex. A. West

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God, but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men; and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

ADDRESS BY THE RECTOR

"SANCTUS AND BENEDICTUS" Alfred J. Eyre

From Communion Service in A and C

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts, Heaven and earth are full of thy glory; Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High. Amen.
Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord. Hosanna in the Highest.

CLOSING PRAYERS AND BLESSING

HYMN 542 "I Heard a Sound of Voices"

POSTLUDE "Toccata" Felix Borowski

The Congregation will please remain seated until after the Postlude.

After this Service, there will be an informal Reception in the Parish House, and we hope you will come there to greet Mr. West.

Records of organ and choir music from this Service have been made in commemoration of the Golden Jubilee, and may be obtained at the Parish House.

A TEACHING MISSION

Conducted by

THE REV. ALAN G. WHITTEMORE, O.H.C., D.D.

A Teaching Mission will be held from Sunday, March 14th, through Friday, March 19th. Its purpose is to help us to see our lives and the life of the world as God sees them. It will help us to straighten out our mistakes, repent us of our sins and find new strength in these hard and puzzling times, so that we may be happier and more effective men and women.

The Mission will be conducted by the Rev. Alan G. Whittemore, O.H.C., D.D., Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross, West Park, N. Y., who is well known, both here and abroad, as a writer and one of the finest Mission preachers that we could be privileged to hear.

There will be a question box. It will be at the door and you can put in any questions you like about the Church or the Mission. The next night Father Whittemore will answer them; you need not sign the questions. Make use of the intercession box, which is also at the door. Put in it requests for prayer. They will be offered each night at the close of the Service.

Meetings of the Mission—Mornings

Every weekday morning the Holy Communion (The Lord's own appointed Service) will be offered to God and given to the people, at two convenient hours—7:00 A. M., and 9:30 A. M.

(Sundays, 7:30 A. M. and 9:30 A. M., as regularly scheduled.)

These Services will be with special intention and prayer as follows:

Monday—For the Mission.

Tuesday—For all people who work.

Wednesday—For the unemployed and poor.

Thursday—For the sick and sad.

Friday—For our dead.

Come daily if you possibly can. Come at least twice during the Mission. When you cannot come, say a morning prayer for the intention of the day.

Meetings of the Mission—Evenings

Every night at 8:00 P. M. (from Sunday to Friday, inclusive), there will be a Mission Teaching Service. These Services will be most informal, no ceremonial, no choir. A hymn or two that everyone knows. Simple devotions in which all can join without embarrassment. Then the teaching. The Service will be over promptly at 9:00.

The general purpose of this Mission is to face and think out together the basic problems connected with the Christian Religion, and to find the right answers in the Presence of God.

Topics each night:

Sunday—"Religion in General."

Monday—"Sin and a Saviour."

Tuesday—"The Crucifixion."

Wednesday—"The Risen Christ."

Thursday—"The Church."

Friday—"After Death."

Attend the entire Mission. Come every night you can. Bring your friends. Those who are not members of our church will also find help and inspiration in these Services. The Mission is for everyone . . .

Dear Friends:

Just a line to wish you and yours every joy of this lovely Christmas Season. It is our responsibility to "put Christ back into Christmas" as the papers put it, and that includes our realization that the day is our Lord's Birthday, and, as such, should be observed by our honoring Him first of all. Come to church first, and the day will be a happy one. Present your gift to Him ahead of everyone else and your giving will be blessed indeed.

Everyone on the Church Staff joins me in wishing you a very Merry Christmas.

Affectionately your Rector,

S. TAGART STEELE, Jr.

THE CHURCH'S ONE FOUNDATION

The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is His new creation by water and the word:
From Heav'n He came and sought her to be His holy Bride;
With His own blood He bought her, and for her life He died.

'Mid toil and tribulation, and tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation of peace for ever more;
Till, with the vision glorious, her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious shall be the Church at rest.

ONWARD, CHRISTIAN SOLDIERS

Onward, Christian soldiers, marching as to war
With the cross of Jesus going on before:
Christ, the Royal Master, leads against the foe;
Forward into battle, see His banners go!

Refrain:

Onward Christian soldiers, marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus going on before!

Onward, then, ye people, join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices in the triumph song;
Glory, laud, and honor, unto Christ the King:
This thro' countless ages men and angels sing.
